INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors Community Action for Better Housing, Inc. Fall River, Massachusetts

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Community Action for Better Housing, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2024, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Community Action for Better Housing, Inc.as of June 30, 2024, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Community Action for Better Housing, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Community Action for Better Housing, Inc. ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and Government Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and Government Auditing Standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Community Action for Better Housing, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Community Action for Better Housing, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Other Matters:

Other information

The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards shown on page 24, as required by Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to the financial statements themselves, and other records used to prepare the financial statements and other records used to prepare the financial statements themselves, and other records used to prepare the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the schedule of expenditures of federal awards is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated February 24, 2025, on our consideration of Community Action for Better Housing, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of Community Action for Better Housing, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering Community Action for Better Housing, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis and in accordance with the reporting principles of not-for-profit accounting as defined by the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification (FASB ASC).

Basis of Presentation

In May of 2014 the Financial Accounting Standard Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). This ASU, as amended, provides comprehensive guidance on the recognition of revenue from customers arising from the transfer of goods and services, guidance on accounting for certain contract costs and new disclosures. The new standard supersedes current revenue recognition requirements in FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 606, Revenue Recognition and most industry-specific guidance. When adopted, the amendments in the ASU must be applied using one of two methods. ASU No. 2014 -09 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2019 and interim reporting period with annual fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019.

CABH's primary revenue stream is rent charges for residential units under leases with duration of less than a year. CABH records revenue for such leases at gross potential rent. The rental value of vacancies and other concessions are stated separately to present net rental income on the accrual basis. Subsidy revenue for low-income eligible tenants is provided under a Section 8 housing assistance payment contract. This contract requires tenants to contribute a portion of the contract rent based on formulas prescribed by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The difference from the calculated subsidy and the contract rent is paid by Neighborworks, City of New Bedford and City of Fall River.

Subsidy income is considered part of the lease and is not considered a contribution under ASC 958. This standard indicated that government payment to specially identified participants are to be considered exchanges transactions and potentially subject to ACS 606. CABH believes that such both rental and subsidy income streams are exempt from compliance with ASC 606 due to their inclusion under current and future lease standards. Revenue streams subject to ACS 606 include: Tenant reimbursement of consumption- based costs paid by CABH on behalf of the tenant, such as utilities and other monthly fees which does not apply to CABH. Additional revenue includes laundry, vending, pet and parking fees as well as damages. Such fees are ancillary to the lease process and are recognized as revenue at the point in time such fees are incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, CABH considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At June 30, 2024, CABH did not have any highly liquid investments. Cash is classified as unrestricted unless it is restricted by laws, regulations, regulatory or other agreements.

Rent Receivables

Rent receivables represent rents that are due from tenants living in various properties owned by CABH and rental subsidies from local housing authorities. A tenant receivable is considered past due if payments have not been received by CABH within 14-days. At that time, CABH issues a letter to the tenant concerning past due rents. If collection does not occur after a 14-day notice is issued, eviction proceedings begin. Accounts are written off as uncollectible if no payments are received at the conclusion of those proceedings. A subsidy receivable is considered past due if payments have not been received by CABH within 30 days. At that time, CABH contacts the local housing authorities and attempts to collect the subsidy payments. Accounts are written off as uncollectible if no payments are received at the conclusion of these procedures.

An allowance for doubtful accounts is provided based on management's valuation of outstanding receivables at the end of the year. For the year ending June 30, 2024, an allowance of $0 was deemed necessary by management. CABH does not have a policy to accrue interest or to require collateral or other security to secure receivables.

Other Receivables

Other receivables represent an overpayment due from related parties.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost at the date of acquisition, or if donated, at fair market value at the date of donation. Capitalization is generally applied to depreciable assets whose cost if $2,000 or more and has a useful life of greater than one year. Expenditures for normal maintenance and repairs and add to the value or extend the useful life of the related asset are capitalized. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line depreciation method over the following estimated useful lives of the below asset categories:

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives as follows:

	Years
Building	40
Improvements	5 - 40
Furniture and equipment	5 - 10

Management evaluates the recoverability of the investment in long-lived assets on a on-going basis and recognizes any impairments in the year of determination. Long-lived assets were tested for impairment as of June 30, 2024 and in the opinion of management, there were no impairments.

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions

Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the organizations. These net assets may be used at the discretion of CABH management and Board of Directors.

Compensated Absences

Compensated absences which are immaterial are accounted for as expenses of the period the liability is incurred.

Rental Income

Rental income is recognized on the accrual basis as the rents become due. The units are rented principally on short-term leases.

Revenue Recognition

Due to COVID-19 the FASB issued a statement that would delay the implementation of ASU 2014-09 (Topic 606). The organization implemented ASC 2014-09 (Topic 606) in the current fiscal year.

CABH's primary revenue stream is rent charges for residential units under leases with duration of less than a year. CABH records revenue for such leases at gross potential rent. The rental value of vacancies and other concessions are stated separately to present net rental income on the accrual basis. Subsidy revenue for low-income eligible tenants is provided under a section 8 housing assistance payment contract. This contract requires tenants to contribute a portion of the contract rent based on formulas prescribed by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The difference from the calculated subsidy and the contract rent is paid by Neighborworks, City of New Bedford and City of Fall River.

Subsidy income is considered part of the lease and is not considered a contribution under ASC 958. This standard indicated that government payment to specially identified participants are to be considered exchanges transactions and potentially subject to ACS 606. CABH believes that such both rental and subsidy income streams are exempt from compliance with ASC 606 due to their inclusion under current and future lease standards. Revenue streams subject to ACS 606 include: Tenant reimbursement of consumption- based costs paid by CABH on behalf of the tenant, such as utilities and other monthly fees which does not apply to CABH. Additional revenue includes laundry, vending, pet and parking fees as well as damages. Such fees are ancillary to the lease process and are recognized as revenue at the point in time such fees are incurred.

Contract, Grant and Contribution Revenue Recognition

Contract, grant and contribution revenue is recognized when earned as CABH fulfills the terms accompanying award of such funds. Revenue received but not earned is classified as either a liability or restricted net assets on the statement of financial position if they are subject to donor restrictions.

Donated Goods, Services and Facilities Received

CABH records donated goods, services and facilities received, at fair market value at the date of donation in accordance with the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board. Donated services are recognized as contributions if the services received (a) create or enhance non-financial assets or (b) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donations. CABH did not receive any donated goods, services or facilities for the year ended June 30, 2024.

Tax-Exempt Status

CABH is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not considered a private foundation. CABH is also exempt from state income taxes under Chapter 180 of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is reflected in the accompanying financial statements.

CABH is subject to the provisions of the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 740, Income Taxes, as it relates to accounting and reporting for uncertainty in income taxes. Because of CABH's general tax-exempt status, management believes ASC Topic 740 has not had, and is not anticipated to have, a material impact on CABH's financial statements. CABH's income tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities generally for the years ended June 30, 2020, 2021 and 2023.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

Expenditures incurred in connection with project operations and expenses for entity and mortgagor expenses have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities and functional expenses. The majority of expenses are directly identified with a program or supporting service.

The financial statement reports certain categories of expenses that are attributable to one or more program or supporting service of the Organization. Therefore, these expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis and include expenses for employee payroll and related costs and are allocated based on time and effort for the specific function.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Leases

In February 2016, the FASB established Topic 842, Leases, which requires lessors to classify leases as a sales-type, direct financing or operating lease. ASC is effective for nonprofit organizations' annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2021. No impact on the current year financial statements.

NOTE L - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

CABH receives funding under certain government contracts. Most of these grants and contracts are subject to possible final audit determination by certain government agencies. Management believes the aforementioned grants and contracts have been expended within their specified terms and conditions.

In August 2008, CABH obtained a mortgage from a local bank to make improvements to property that CABH owns as rental property for income-eligible households. Federal Home Loan Bank of Boston provided a local bank $79,921 to be used as an interest rate subsidy to lower the interest rate on a mortgage to CABH. Since the mortgage agreement has the stipulation that the interest rate subsidy of $79,921 must be returned if the property is sold or refinanced, or if CABH ceases to rent the property to income-eligible households within fifteen (15) years from date of completion of the project, a contingent liability is disclosed herein.

In August 2008, CABH obtained a mortgage from a local bank to make improvements to property that CABH owns as rental property for income-eligible households. Federal Home Loan Bank of Boston provided a local bank $127,325 which was passed on to CABH as a non-interest-bearing direct subsidy.

Since the mortgage agreement has the stipulation that the $127,325 must be returned if the property is sold or refinanced, or if CABH ceases to rent the property to income-eligible households within fifteen (15) years from date of completion of the project, a contingent liability is disclosed herein.

CABH holds several deferred note payables with the City of Fall River, MA, under the HOME Investment Partnership Program. See Note I for further information. The note payables accrue interest at various rates on an annual basis with final payment deferred until maturity. In the past, CABH has had similar note payables where all balances due have been forgiven. CABH expects the same to occur for the current deferred note payables. However, it is indeterminable if this will occur. As of June 30, 2024, CABH has estimated that $286,907 of accrued interest would be payable should forgiveness not occur.

As of June 30, 2024 CABH, had reported assets held for resale of $0.

NOTE M - DEFERRED REVENUE

In July 2013, CABH was awarded a $240,000 grant from the City of New Bedford. The award funds were used for the rehabilitation of 73 Division Street, New Bedford. The grant terms include a ten (10) year affordability period which requires at least 51% of the beneficiaries of the project will be to persons with low and moderate income. The City of New Bedford placed a lien on the property for the full grant award and the lien is to remain on the property for the affordability period. Failure to comply with the affordability period or the sale of the property within that period will trigger repayment of the grant.

As of June 30, 2024, CABH has received $239,621 from the City of New Bedford.

NOTE N - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent events have been evaluated through February 24, 2025, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Independent Auditor's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting and on Compliance and Other Matters Based on an Audit of Financial Statements Performed in Accordance with Government Auditing Standards

To the Board of Directors Community Action for Better Housing, Inc. Fall River, Massachusetts

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Community Action for Better Housing, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2024, and the related statements of activities, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated February 24, 2025.

Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered Community Action for Better Housing, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements, on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified.

Report on Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the financial statements. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. To the Board of Directors Community Action for Better Housing, Inc. Fall River, Massachusetts

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

We have audited Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s compliance with the types of compliance requirements identified as subject to audit in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2024. Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

In our opinion, Community Action for Better Housing Inc. complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2024.

Basis for Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Our responsibilities under those standards and the Uniform Guidance are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Compliance section of our report.

We are required to be independent of Community Action for Better Housing Apartments Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. Our audit does not provide a legal determination of Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s compliance with the compliance requirements referred to above.

Responsibilities of Management for Compliance

Management is responsible for compliance with the requirements referred to above and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of effective internal control over compliance with the requirements of laws, statutes, regulations, rules, and provisions of contracts or grant agreements applicable to Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s federal programs.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Compliance

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether material noncompliance with the compliance requirements referred to above occurred, whether due to fraud or error, and express an opinion on Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s compliance based on our audit. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, Government Auditing Standards, and the Uniform Guidance will always detect material noncompliance when it exists. The risk of not detecting material noncompliance resulting from fraud is higher than for that resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Noncompliance with the compliance requirements referred to above is considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, it would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user of the report on compliance about Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s compliance with the requirements of each major federal program as a whole.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, Government Auditing Standards, and the Uniform Guidance, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s compliance with the compliance requirements referred to above and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.
- Obtain an understanding of Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s internal control over compliance relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Community Action for Better Housing Inc.'s internal control over compliance. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in internal control over compliance that we identified during the audit.

Report on Internal Control over Compliance

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance requirement of a federal program with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance is a deficiency or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance is a deficiency or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance is a deficiency or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance is a deficiency or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance is a deficiency or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Compliance section above and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in internal control over compliance. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above. NOTES TO THE SCHEDULE OF EXPENDITURES OF FEDERAL AWARDS

A. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards (schedule) includes the federal grant activity of Community Action for Better Housing (CABH) under programs of the federal government for the year ended June 30, 2024. The information in this schedule is presented in accordance with the requirements of 2 CFR Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Because the schedule presents only a selected portion of the operations of CABH, it is not intended to and does not present the financial position, changes in net assets or cash flows of CABH.

B. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Expenditures reported on the schedule are reported on the accrual basis of accounting. Such expenditures are recognized following the cost principles contained in the Uniform Guidance, wherein certain types of expenditures are not allowable or are limited as to reimbursement. Negative amounts shown on the schedule represent adjustments or credits made in the normal course of business to amounts reported as expenditures in prior years.

CABH has not elected to use the 10 percent de minimis indirect cost rate as allowed under the Uniform Guidance.

Expenditures are recognized following, as applicable, either the cost principles in OMB Circular A-122, Cost Principles for Non-Profit Organizations, or the cost principles contained in Title 2 U.S. code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, wherein certain types of expenditures are not allowable or are limited as to reimbursement.

C. Loan Programs with Continuing Compliance Requirements

Total expenditures in the accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards for the HOME Investment Partnership (HOME) program (ALN 14.239) includes the total amount of new loans made during fiscal year 2024, as well as the unpaid principal balance from loans originated in previous years for which the Federal government imposed "continuing compliance requirements" through 42 USC 12701-12839 and 3535(d), with implementing regulations codified at 24 CFR part 92.

As of June 30, 2024, the HOME program had loan balances subject to continuing compliance requirements of $4,804,459. Uniform Guidance (2 CFR 200.502) requires this amount be included in the "basis for determining Federal awards expended" on the current year schedule of expenditures of federal awards as the Federal government is at risk for the loans until the debt is repaid. The beginning balance of the loans subject to continuing compliance requirements was $4,804,459 at July 1, 2023.
