About Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Fall River

Founded in 1924, Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Fall River (CCFR) has served vulnerable individuals and families across Southeastern Massachusetts for more than a century. Anchored in faith, our mission is to embrace the dignity of every individual by fostering empowerment, resilience, opportunity, and hope.

Today, CCFR serves over 28000 individuals annually through emergency shelters, food assistance programs, housing stabilization services, immigration legal services, and other vital community-based programs throughout Bristol County, Cape Cod, the Islands, and surrounding communities.

As we celebrate over 100 years of service to the Diocese of Fall River, we invite you to join us as a sponsor for this milestone event and help strengthen our mission of compassion, dignity, and hope.

Why Your Support Matters

Support from gala sponsors directly benefits Catholic Charities programs serving vulnerable individuals and families throughout Southeastern Massachusetts. Your sponsorship helps sustain:

- Emergency shelter and homelessness services
- Food pantry and meal programs
- Housing stabilization and family support
- Immigration legal services
- Youth and young adult programs
- Mental Health Ministry and community support initiatives

Together, we can continue over a century of compassionate service while strengthening pathways toward dignity, stability, and hope.
